

MISTRESS OF MIRTH'S COMEDY TOUR

with Justine Sless as Your Guide

Semi-autobiographical, intellectually compelling and frightfully funny.

The joke sequence begins in Bourke Mall, ducks into a department store and veers off into the world of live amateur stand-up comedy.

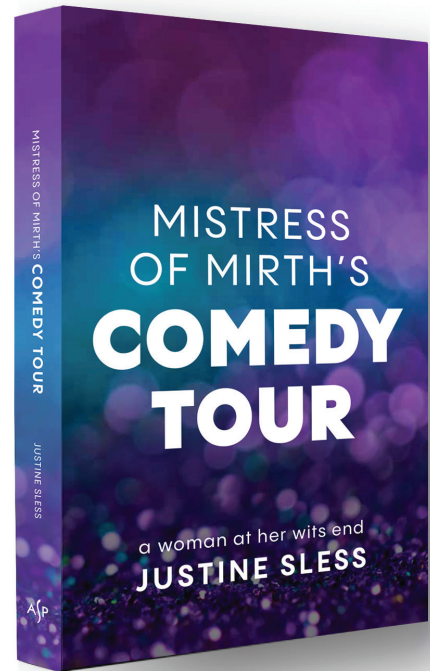

Follow the HA! HA! flags to ensure that you don't get lost in the quagmire of invective that has been directed at funny women for a millennium!

'Sheer Comedy Panache' Arts Hub

'Sparkling Comedy' Jewish News

'Biting Sarcasm. Razor Sharp Wit' Herald Sun

Launch date: April 9, 2022, Athenaeum Library, Melbourne

About the Author

Justine Sless teaches, performs, researches and writes comedy. She has toured nationally and internationally and performed for a huge range of clients at events, festivals and conferences and written numerous one-woman shows.

Justine's writing appears in Jewish Women of Words, Funny Women, short story anthologies and academic journals. She is on the board of Writers Victoria, is a member of the Australasian Humour Association, and is the Australian Producer for Funny Women, a global platform that supports women's voices in comedy.

Born and raised in Sunderland UK, Justine now lives in Melbourne with her two daughters and a dry sense of humour.

Author Talks & Comedy Bookings

Justine Sless

E-mail: justinesless@yahoo.com

Mobile: 0405 329 633

Web: justinesless.com

Twitter/Instagram/LinkedIn: @justinesless

Blog: Excuse Me There Are Crumbs in My Comedy

